

A close-up, first-person perspective of a driver's hand on a steering wheel. The hand is wearing a gold ring on the ring finger. The steering wheel is dark-colored. In the background, a road with white lane markings stretches into the distance, flanked by green trees. A speedometer overlay is visible on the left side of the image, showing numbers from 140 to 260. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting daytime.
